Demand for Stocks Not What Was Expected and Prices Dropped.

LISTLESS AND SLUGGISH

Professional Operators Hoped for Expansion of Dealings, But Were Disappointed.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 27.—There was hope and some expectation in the circles of professional operators in stocks that the and some expectation in the circles of professional operators in stocks that the opening of the new week would witness an expansion of the dealings and a broadening of the interest in the market. The market proved even more listless and sluggish than usual. Last week's hardening of prices and the good tone with which the light profit-taking at the end of the week was absorbed were the basis for hopes that the rising movement would gain force and attract outside domand. A summing up of general conditions bore out some of the forecasts upon which it was supposed last weeks rise was based. But the new demand for stocks failed to develop and the disappointment caused prices to droop after the opening. The later fluctuations were languid and totally indifferent. Railroad officials in their customary weekly discussion of trains expressed a feeling of encouragement for the first time in many weeks, and professed to some actual growth of the movement of merchandise. Atchison's net showing for May cost it the gain made sarry on the circulation of rumore that an important holding was being built up in the proporty in the interest of Junion Pacific. London sold quite freely in this market. A bank suspension in Saratoga, although placed in the "unimportant" class, had its usual effect in chilling sentiment as an individual instance as intevalent general conditions. Price changes proved to be entirely insignificant, and the closing tone of the market was leavy. There was an appreciatible investment for high-grade bonds, but the price movement was irresular. Total sales, par value, $2,055,000. United States 2s declined 1-5 and the old 4s, registered, advanced 1-5 per cent, on call.

Total sales of stocks for the day were 185,000 shares.

The Dixle Troubadours and the "Bight English Dancing Girls" are again at the Casino, and last night, despite the col weather, they were given a warm recep-tion.

weather, they were given a warm reception.

The programme is made up of two musical skits, neither one of which is remarkable for any very bright or original lines, though they serve their purpose very well and furnish the necessary vehicle for the display of the talents of the members of the company.

The most unique feature of the performance is the Radium dance, in which the eight dancing girls participate. During this number the entire house is in darkness, and not even a gleam of light is seen on the stage. The only objects that can be distinguished are the forms of the eight girls as they note lessly fift about the stage, looking like phantoms in the air. The offect is almost, weight, and makes one conjure up visions of ghosts and spoaks.

THE LADY'S SHOT WAS UNERRING

Negro Who Tried to Enter Miss Cowper's Room Paid for it With His Life.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SUFFOLIC. VA., June 27.-FThe police to-day had positive information that the man whom Miss Ophelia Cowper shot some days ago had died of his wounds in Isle of Wight county. He was a negro, whose name they have not learned.

The negro broke into the home where Miss Cowper lived with her mother, and, despite warnings that he would enter her hed chamber on the pain of death, forced the door. Miss Cowper fired with a revolver at close range, whereupon the intruder uttered a cry of pain and escaped, leaving a trail of blood on the steps and sidewalk. All efforts to locate the would-be ursaliant by police, detectives and county constables were resultless. Their trail ended at a church yard, about four miles from Suffolk, where a pool of blood was found.

Police Chief Brinkley is informed that Miss Cowper's bullet entered the negro's neck and took a downward course, producing internal hemorrhages. Miss Cowper thinks the incident hastened the end of her mother, who died last Friday, (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Mr John Cox, of Revolution Milis, had a disturbance this morning with a muche was trying to make plow. In the difficulty the mule by some means got Mr. Cox down and kicked him all over. Mr. Cox when found in the fold, was apparently dead. Doctors in the city were telephoned for, and his brother, Street Superintendent George Cox. When they arrived at his bedside, the injured man was alive and the physician thinks he may live. He was taken up for dead, and carried to a near by house, and showed signs of life only after he had been lakt out on a cot preparatory to shrouding him.

PARALYZED BY HIS INJURY.
Another terrible accident happened to Mr. Clark Benlow, a prominent larmer of Oak Ridge. He was under a reaper, which had been jacked up to enable him to do some repair work, when the supports fell, bringing the heavy machine down on him. Mr. Benbow was completely paralyzed, and is in an almost beneless condition, the physicians most hopeless condition, the physicians saying they fear his back is broken. He is kept under the influence of opiates, and his condition is critical.
